Are you an international student?

Prepare for the start of term and think about your social protection! êtes étudiant international?

Registration for French social security is free of charge and mandatory. It means your health costs will be covered throughout the duration of your studies.

Your registration procedures once you have arrived in France

When you arrive in France, and after having obtained your certificate of enrolment in a higher education institution, register at the dedicated the "Assurance Maladie" website etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr. Then enter the mandatory information and upload the supporting documents requested. It is recommended that you upload all your supporting documents at the same time:

- Proof of identity (passport);
- Proof of civil status (birth certificate);
- Valid student visa;
- Certificate of enrolment for the current university year;
- A residence permit.

To help you with your registration, watch the tutorial on the website etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr, under "Help". After following these steps, your personal account is created. You can access it using the email address entered when registering.

To guarantee coverage of your health costs and receive medical treatment, it is essential to undertake certain procedures. You can watch these procedures via this tutorial.

If you encounter any difficulties in registering for the "Assurance Maladie", contact 36 46 (free service + cost of call) Monday to Friday from 08:30 to 17:30. On request, you will be put in touch with a telephone advisor who will be able to talk to you in English and will offer you a meeting.
